Welcome to Nancy

You have chosen to engage in a mission of EVS in France, in Nancy and hope that this experience will be useful for future projects.

Upon arrival to the end of your mission, you may be taken (e) to ask different questions:

How is this going to happen in my home service and with my tutor?

What are my benefits?

What are my rights and duties?

How to request a leave of absence?

How to develop my skills and prepare for my future project?

You will find in this guide some answers to these questions, which we hope will be useful throughout your mission within the community.

We wish you a nice and commitment are at your side to make your adventure citizen.

Nancy

Famous Place Stanislas will never fail to impress you. It's striking beauty and lively ambiance gives an Italian air to the city, year round. You can find nearby the Park of Pépinière. But Place Stan was not the only recipient of the UNESCO World Heritage label, The Place d'Alliance, which resembles a mini Place des Vosges in Paris and The Place de la Carrière also received the honour.

The New City (ville neuve), from the end of the 17th century, includes most of the main commercial area. You can find the Point Central and the Place Charles III, the Central Market, all the big brands, boutique shops and restaurants – and of course eating is a popular pass time here as well. The architecture Art Déco is also present, often next to its Art Nouveau counterparts from l'Ecole de Nancy. Close to Germany, Luxembourg and Belgium. In summer it can be very hot and quite cold, so think of bringing some warm clothes too.

Meurthe-et-Moselle — Lorraine — Grand Est

Nancy is located in the County (Département in french) of Meurthe-et-Moselle, one of the four departments (Meurthe-et-Moselle, Meuse, Moselle and Vosges) making up the Lorraine Region. Since 2016, following a territorial reform, French regions have merged and the Lorraine Region is now part of the Région Grand Est.

Lorraine Region is part of the Grande Région with Belgium, Luxembourg and Germany. This Union make economic and cultural cooperation's between territories.

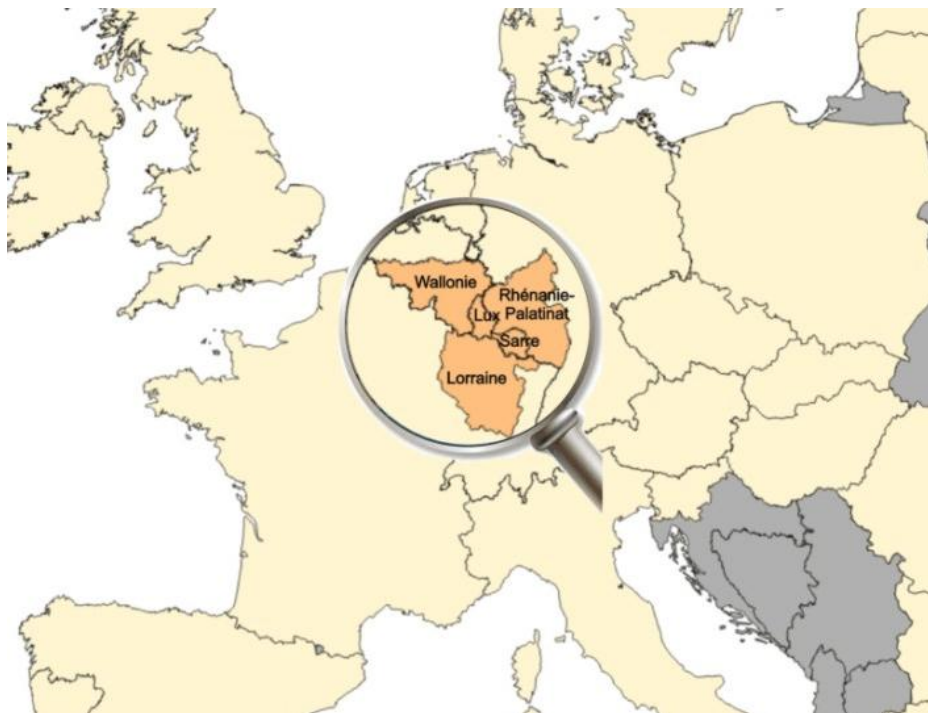

In the Grand Nancy region, there are many lovely old villages who attest to the ancient traditions of wine in the area: Vandoeuvre, Villers, Ludres, Houdemont, Dommartemont...

There are also some spectacular attractions such as the Castel of Lunéville, Chartreuse de Bosserville at Art-sur-Meurthe, the Castel of Fléville or the Domaine de Montaigu at Jarville-la-Malgrange. Or you can find some magnificent religious edifices, fountains and washrooms. Visit the Douera, the extravagant Mozarab style mansion in Maxéville (complete with Arabian calligraphy), ancient oppidums like Saint Geneviève in Essey les Nancy or the banks and islands of the River Meurthe at Tomblaine....

What is the European Voluntary Service?

The EVS is part of the Youth and Sport department of Erasmus + Program. EVS offers a mobility experience and commitment in another country. It allows to discover another culture and acquire professional skills.

A personal project: specific to each, it is linked to your personality, your background, your skills, your motivation and your desires.

A social utility work: you participate in ongoing activities and made proposals. That is why your commitment does not replace the professional activity but the full.

Educational support: you are accompanied by a tutor who will offer a learning experience that is neither academic or professional. You follow a training time on the values of citizenship and you share exchange time between volunteers.

A stage of life: it allows you to dedicate yourself fully to your citizen investment.
